Council Connection

At its March 2nd meeting, the City Council took the following actions:

- Recognized the top 20 winners of the Human Rights Commission "One Community of Many Colors" 4th Grade Poster Contest. This contest is held annually in conjunction with the Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday and asks students to create a poster that includes people of different races or cultures interacting positively with one another. More than 320 posters were submitted as part of this year's contest.
- Appointed Eugene Nichols to the Human Rights Commission for a 3-year term, ending January 31, 2018.
- Approved a final plat for the creation of two new single family residential lots at 5515 and 5525 Turtle Lake Road.

Dive Into a Movie Night

This Friday, make it a movie night and warm up in the Tropics

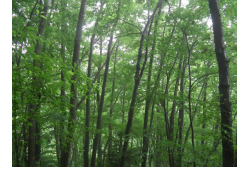

Join us for our next Dive-In Movie this Friday, March 6 at the Tropics Indoor Waterpark at 7 p.m.! This event is free to Community Center members, or a one-day guest pass to the Community Center also gives you access to this fun event. Call 651.490.4750 for the movie title. More info >>

Invasive Plants: They're Here

Environmental Speaker Series continues March 18 at 7 p.m.

We've heard plenty about invasive aquatic species (such as zebra mussels) that can overrun an area after they arrive. But you probably didn't know that invasive plants have been discovered right here in Shoreview. Find out how you can spot them and help prevent them from spreading on Wednesday, March 18 at 7 p.m. in the Shoreview City Council Chambers. More info >>

Shoreview Egg Hunt - Register Now

Join the Bunny on March 28 for an "eggciting" hunt

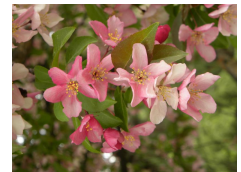

Join the Bunny on Saturday, March 28 for the Shoreview Egg Hunt! Each participant will be given an Easter bag for an old-fashioned "eggciting" hunt for prized-filled eggs. This event is held outdoors, so please dress for the weather. Space is limited. Register online by March 20 >>

Enter your Shoreview photos for a chance to win

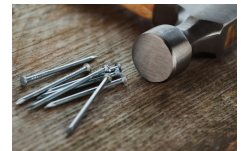

Send us your original photographs depicting Shoreview's fun events for families, unique landmarks, and scenic beauty in the winter and spring seasons. Winning photos of the New Views of Shoreview contest will be showcased at City Hall, and a number of cash prizes will be awarded. Full contest details here >>

Thinking About Home Improvements?

Find out how the HousingResource Center can help

Spring is a great time to start thinking about home improvement projects. Residents of Shoreview who are considering making home repairs are eligible for free construction consultations through the HousingResource Center. In addition to providing home improvement advice, the HousingResource Center also offers guidance about financing tools and other housing-related topics. Call them at 651.486.7401 or visit them online.
